Kindness Celebration

A Few Words With Willie M.

Employment Opportunities

Linda's Art Day

Linda R. from the 'Round About Senior Services is showing off her recent color by numbers art piece. With the help of her senior companion, Cliff Belknap, Linda successfully colored a beautiful masterpiece.

Martin on the Job

Martin O. from the Supported Employment Program was recently hired at Burlington. Martin is so excited to learn and apply his job skills to his brand new position. Congrats, Martin!

Be Kind to Humankind Week is an annual worldwide celebration of kindness from August 25-31. It is a time for us to reflect on what we can do to make this world a better place!

HOW TO CELEBRATE:
Be Kind to Humankind Week

MOTORISTS CONSIDERATION MONDAY Time to practice patience and consideration towards others while traveling.	TOUCH A HEART TUESDAY Take the opportunity to show your love towards others.	WILLING TO LEND A HAND WEDNESDAY Offer someone your time, help, or advice today.	THOUGHTFUL THURSDAY Thoughtful Thursday is the perfect time to be mindful of those around you.
FORGIVE YOUR FOE FRIDAY Try to find enough forgiveness in your heart. It's not worth it to spend any amount of time being filled with hatred & negativity.	SPEAK KIND WORDS SATURDAY Words are extremely powerful. They can make us, break us, & hurt or heal other people. Think before you speak or press send.	SACRIFICE OUR WANTS FOR OTHERS' NEEDS SUNDAY Today is a chance to do something for somebody else in need.
